

our democracy, undermining the sanctity of the vote and the integrity of our elections, which are the bases of our democracy.

Let us be true to the vision of our Founders, who brilliantly established our democracy and made it a model for the world.

Let us honor the sacrifice of our men and women in uniform who protect that freedom with their lives.

Let us remember the words of another President, our patriarch, President George Washington, when he delivered the Constitution to Congress:

The Constitution represents the creation of a government which would allow for the continuation of rigorous debate but relies upon the common sense and good faith of the American people to find the better angels of their nature.

As we proceed, let us find our common ground and reach our Nation's heights, with liberty and justice for all, remembering the words of our great patriarch and in the spirit that our Chaplain referenced of President Lincoln, with malice toward none, with charity toward all.

As I conclude, I want to acknowledge our fallen heroes of that day:

U.S. Capitol Police Officer Brian Sicknick;

U.S. Capitol Police Officer Howard Liebengood;

Metropolitan Police Officer Jeffrey Smith;

U.S. Capitol Police Officer Billy Evans, of a later assault.

Now I ask all Members to rise for a moment of silence in their memory.
